IRENE HINKE-SACILOTTO

“A Passion for Wildlife Photography

The Stories Behind the Images”

Thursday, February 4, 2021 - 7:00 pm

Delaware Photographic Society

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

This webinar is based on Irene Hinke-Sacilotto's more than 35 plus years' experience photographing wildlife and covers the requirements, strategies, techniques, and equipment required to capture engaging animal images. Included is information on lighting and composition, plus locating, attracting, and approaching wildlife. The program is interwoven with some entertaining stories behind some of the images. Images from her recent urban wildlife project acquired during COVID19 confinement have been newly added to the program.

For more than 35 years, Irene has shared her photographic experiences and love of nature with thousands of individuals through more than 300 photo classes, workshops, lectures, and tours in both the U.S. and abroad including Kenya, Iceland, Newfoundland, the Falkland Islands, the Brazilian Pantanal, South Dakota Badlands, Bosque del Apache, Chincoteague NWR, Tangier Island, etc. Program sponsors have included zoos, nature centers, camera clubs, and conservation organizations such as National Wildlife Federation and the Assateague Island Alliance. For many years, Irene has taught photography classes at Johns Hopkins University and other educational institutions and has written “How To” articles on nature photography for national publications such as Outdoor Photographer and Birding. Her images have appeared in magazines, calendars, and books published by National Wildlife Federation, Natural History Society, Audubon, and Sierra Club. Credits include the book, “Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge, an Ecological Treasure.”

No registration required. To attend: On the night of the webinar go to www.dpsphoto.org, scroll down to the meeting notice and click on the Zoom Meeting link.
